

The Elks Magazine is one of the largest association publications in the nation with over 800,000 active, affluent, patriotic, and community-minded adult readers who are members of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the USA. The audience skews heavily toward mature men with a wide range of ethnicities, but the percentage of younger adults and women is steadily increasing. The Elks Magazine is published 10 times per year and features general interest editorial covering various topics, including Americana, history, travel, health, business, and personal finance. The magazine also provides Elks members with news about the organization and its charitable activities, including the Order's work with veterans, active-duty members of the US armed forces, and those in need. The Elks Magazine has 100-percent paid subscribers (AAM audited) who are extremely engaged with the editorial content and highly responsive to the advertising featured in the publication.
